

KVVTI selected for testing site

The Accreditation Council for Accountancy (ACA) has selected Kennebec Valley Vocational Technical Institute as a testing site for its nationwide examinations, which test the capabilities of candidates in accountancy and federal taxation.

The six-hour exams will be administered Friday, May 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Applications for either of the exams are available through Marjorie J. Alley at KVVTI. For more information, call 873-6133.
